

Lunch today called off due to latest emergency reports. We will meet next month.

If any NEMA church, etc. needs emergency assistance call me on my cell: 281 507-9995.

Somebody Cares America/Houston will be running a command post and will have emergency numbers as well. I will be on a conference call today at 12 with first responders throughout the area. I will email you the information after the call.

Tips: THE LINES AT THE GROCERY STORE AND GAS STATIONS ARE GETTING LONG. DON'T WAIT UNTIL LATER ON THURSDAY...GO ASAP AND GET THE NECESSITIES

1. Secure all windows with wind exposure-ply wood or particle board
2. If you vacate the city leave your emergency phone number with neighbor, etc. You can also leave your number with me if necc.
3. Secure all lawn furniture where the wind will not be able to 'blow it away' or into your church, home, office.
4. Get clean water stored for 2 to 5 days. Store undrinkable water to flush toilets if necc.
5. Get some food stuff that does not need cooking. Make sure you have a can opener or easy-pop top cans
6. Fill your car with gas
7. Back up important computer files on external drive and put in safe, dry place
8. Put all important papers in water proof plastic bags or containers.
9. Designate a 'safe room' in your house away from glass and wind exposure
10. Make sure you have a flashlight with extra batteries.
11. If you have battery driven hand drills, charge the batteries now
12. Make sure your prescription drugs are filled to carry you buy for at least a week or more.
13. If prescriptions or food, etc need ice, fill your coolers with ice no

- later than Friday a.m.
14. Make sure you have gas for your chain saw and other gasoline powered tools, etc.
 15. Take down any swinging plant pots or anything in the yard that could become a dangerous flying object.
 16. If you do evacuate later be sure and carry plenty of drinking water, flashlights, and your essential medicines, etc.

I will be emailing you later on with an update for emergency information. If you would be willing to open your church to evacuees let me know. Pray for those who will be closest to the eye of the storm.

In the Name of Him who is in control, Buddy
